Headline:
Cloudy with some rain today. Turning warmer and drier.

Today:
A largely cloudy day, with only a little early brightness in the north. Western areas will receive some outbreaks of rain or drizzle, with these perhaps spreading slightly further east later. Warmest in the east but cooler than Thursday. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Tonight:
Staying cloudy overnight and some patchy rain continues, again mostly in the west. Milder than Thursday night and most places dry by dawn. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Saturday:
Early cloud breaks to patchy fair-weather cloud by midday, providing sunny spells through Saturday afternoon and possibly producing a few showers. Feeling warm come the afternoon. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Warm, dry and settled throughout this period. Plenty of sunshine through Sunday. Patchy cloud and sunny spells on Bank Holiday Monday but lengthier sunshine returning on Tuesday.
